SCIENCE METHODOLOGY

- DISCUSS the changes in weather in the Fall season (temperature drop and leaf color changes)
- CREATE a weather graph showing the temperature of the last few days.
- PLAN on keeping the graph on the bulletin board for the entire month adding data each day.
- GO on a leaf hunt to collect all colors of leaves. Each student should have a paper bag for collecting.
- USE the leaves collected to make a leaf rubbing by placing the leaf on the desk, covering it with piece of paper. Use the side of a crayon to rub across the paper to make the leaf rubbing.

RELIGION METHODOLOGY

- SHOW the pictures of the baby animals.
- DISCUSS the color patterns and size of babies.
- SHOW AND DISCUSS the adult animal picture.
- ASK: How did this animal change from baby to adult?
- DISPLAY the pictures of a person's growth.
- ASK: What changes can you see from picture to picture?
- ASK: Why do these changes happen?(Because this is the way God made us.)
- ASK: What can older children do that you can't wait to

- DISCUSS why the leaves change colors
- DISPLAY the leaf rubbings.
- POSIT: Changes in temperature signal the end of the growing season. The sap in the tree recedes from the branches causing the leaves to dry and change colors.

- be able to do? Why?
- ASK: Is there any part of being a 2-3 year old that you still wish you were able to do? Why?
- HAVE the student use the paper plate and mask templates to design and color
- HAVE the mask-wearing students come up during a reading of the Creation Story as you name the creation of their animal.

POSIT: God made all living creatures to change.
